PASTORIAL TO WORK IN CHINA

Alexandria Minister to Take Up Evangelistic Work in the Orient.

MEETING TO AID JEWS
Parent-Teachers' Meeting Sunday Afternoon—Maccabees to Hold Joint Banquet Thursday Night.

THE WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, R. E. Keady & Son, 611-613 King street.

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 22.—Pastor J. W. Hall, of the Seventh Day Adventist Church of this city, has received an appointment from the Foreign Mission Board of the denomination to undertake field evangelistic work in China. Mr. and Mrs. Hall's labors have been much appreciated here; especially in connection with the Bible classes which they have organized and conducted. They will start on their journey about February 1, visiting about a month on the way in this country, and sailing from Seattle for Shanghai March 7.

Elder Floyd E. Gibson, of Colonial Beach, who has had charge of the churches through the northern part of Virginia, will take up Mr. Hall's work in this city.

The Seventh Day Adventists have recently secured the remodeled Odd Fellows hall in which to hold Saturday afternoon meetings.

A mass meeting will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday night, in the auditorium of the Elks' Home, in the interest of the Hebrew war sufferers. It will be under auspices of the Council of Jewish Women of this city, together with the two congregations.

Among the speakers will be Senator Claude A. Swanson, Virginia; Representative Charles C. Carlin, this city; Rev. Dr. Abram Simon, of the Eighth Street Temple, Washington; Miss Mabel Boardman, of the American Red Cross Society; Rev. E. V. Regeater, formerly presiding elder of the Washington district of the M. E. Church, South; Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, former president of the National Council of Women, and Rev. Louis Smet, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Charles Bendheim will preside and introduce the speakers. The committee in charge of the arrangements is composed of Mrs. Charles Bendheim and Mrs. Max E. Rosenfeld.

"Preparedness" will be the topic of a number of speakers who will make addresses at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the surprise theater under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association. The meeting will be presided over by S. G. Blanton, president of the association. Those expected to make short addresses include: Mr. J. H. Gaffney, secretary of the Navy League; Miss Elizabeth Poe, chairman of the women's section of the Navy League; Gen. E. W. Nichols, of the Army League; and Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett. Mrs. Barrett will speak on the value of military training for the young.

Plans have been completed for a vesper service at St. Mary's Catholic Church at 8 o'clock Sunday night, February 13, under the auspices of the Holy Name Society. Rev. Father Gaffney, of the Dominican Order, will preach a sermon. The choral service will be given by the Knights of Columbus choir of Washington.

These officers have been elected by the congregation of the Second Baptist Church to serve for the year: J. A. Hulsh, treasurer; Raymond Simon, clerk; W. C. Dameron and Albert Jones, deacons; Mrs. Albert Jones, assistant organist; T. P. Henderson, chorister; Mrs. W. H. Petty, director of choir; George K. Bender, superintendent of Sunday school; J. A. Hulsh, assistant superintendent; T. P. Henderson, secretary; Charles D. Bender, assistant secretary; Louis Bender, pianist; Mrs. J. A. Hulsh, organist.

A total of 200 boys in the third and fourth grades of Washington public school will on Monday be transferred to the new high school building, which will be their permanent school quarters hereafter. Teachers of the grades transferred to the new building include Misses Mary Gregg, Lella Beattie, Virginia Roxbury and Rosa Caplan.

Those scheduled to make addresses at the annual joint banquet of the Maccabees, which will be held Thursday night, in the Westmoreland Hotel, include John J. Dozier, Norfolk; Mrs. Mabel L. Rue, Washington; Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, this city; Miss Vlerkon and Albert Lang will give solos and music will be furnished by the Maccabees orchestra.

Ensign and Mrs. Louis Coleman, of Macon, Ga., will come here Monday for the purpose of taking charge of the Salvation Army work. This organization has arranged for a meeting Monday night in the M. E. Church South, at which time an address will be delivered by Col. R. E. Holz, of Philadelphia. Staff Capt. Campbell will sing.

Louis F. Post, Assistant Secretary of Labor, will deliver an address at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Richmond Theater under the auspices of the Laymen's League. His subject will be "Brotherhood."

The colored Republicans of this city have adopted resolutions for the appointment of a special committee to look after the payment of the colored veterans' pension. The committee will consist of: Charles D. Carter, president; W. N. Jackson, secretary; and J. A. Hulsh, treasurer.

In the Police Court today George Jackson, colored, arrested by Chief Goods and Sergeant Smith, was fined $50 on a charge of promoting police. Mrs. M. H. Wilson, said to have been found in his possession, were offered as evidence. Jackson noted an appeal and gave bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance in the Corporation Court.

The funeral of John Hanrahan, a former resident, who died in Skyville, Md., will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow from the Methodist Protestant Church.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hulsh have sold to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Pierpont a two-story brick dwelling 114 North Columbus street. A deed of transfer was recorded today. Mr. and Mrs. Hulsh will leave tomorrow for Havre, Mont., where they will make their future home.

Fraternities at the University of California will be prohibited in the future from constructing houses costing more than $25,000, according to a resolution passed by trustees of the university.

4,452 INCREASE IN POPULATION

Washington Maintains Average Increase During Past Two Years.

POPULATION IS 357,749
Eight Thousand More White Women Than White Men—Colored Race Falls Off.

Washington's population increased 4,452 during the past two years, according to the latest police census, made public by Maj. Pullman yesterday. The total number of persons now living in the eleven precincts of the city is 357,749. This total is made up of 238,840 whites and 38,809 colored persons. The previous census was taken in 1913.

The increase of 4,452 is regarded by police officials as normal, the average annual increase since 1900 being 2,400. The colored population increased only 665, the figures for 1913 being 38,144. This remarkably low rate of increase is believed to have been due largely to a high death rate among the colored race during the past two years. In 1914, 2,373 colored persons died, and last year 2,537 died, according to the records of the Health Department.

The latest census shows that there are 8,090 more white women than white men in the city. The total number of white women is 125,451, while the total number of white men reaches 117,361. In the colored race, there are 8,585 more women than men, the figures being 45,112 men compared with 53,697 women. There are 50,313 more white men than colored men in the city, the total number of white men being 125,451, against 45,112 colored men.

Washington's alley population is made up of 588 whites and 8,397 colored persons.

Population by Precincts.

The detailed figures for the eleven precincts follow:

First precinct—Total population, 6,500, made up of 6,361 whites and 139 colored. Decrease from last census of 1,582.

Second precinct—Total, 36,308, made up of 22,954 whites and 13,354 colored. Decrease from last census, 286.

Third precinct—Total, 20,727, made up of 18,018 whites and 11,709 colored. Decrease from last census, 1,389.

Fourth precinct—Total, 25,131, made up of 15,780 whites and 12,351 colored. Decrease from last census, 2,215.

Fifth precinct—Total, 36,413, made up of 28,341 whites and 7,872 colored. Decrease from last census, 1,360.

Sixth precinct—Total, 25,483, made up of 20,490 whites and 5,023 colored. Increase from last census, 333.

Eighth precinct—Total, 45,540, made up of 32,154 whites and 12,386 colored. Increase from last census, 1,645.

Ninth precinct—Total, 50,405, made up of 40,565 whites and 9,840 colored. Increase from last census, 1,731.

Tenth precinct—Total, 66,601, made up of 56,430 whites and 7,588 colored. Increase from last census, 8,132.

Eleventh precinct—Total, 15,084, made up of 10,308 whites and 4,586 colored. Increase from last census, 780.

Total number of persons by ages follows:

White—From birth to 4 years, 18,727; from 5 to 9 years, 18,828; from 10 to 14 years, 18,828; from 15 to 19 years, 20,230; from 20 to 24 years, 20,230; from 25 to 29 years, 20,230; from 30 to 34 years, 20,230; from 35 to 39 years, 20,230; from 40 to 44 years, 20,230; from 45 to 49 years, 20,230; from 50 to 54 years, 20,230; from 55 to 59 years, 20,230; from 60 to 64 years, 20,230; from 65 to 69 years, 20,230; from 70 to 74 years, 20,230; from 75 to 79 years, 20,230; from 80 to 84 years, 20,230; from 85 to 89 years, 20,230; from 90 to 94 years, 20,230; from 95 to 99 years, 20,230; from 100 years and over, 1,864.

In addition to Mr. Woodward's illustrated lecture, Col. H. H. Smith will make an address, and Mrs. George Smallwood, whose eloquence is proverbial, will read a paper on "The Laying of the First Milestone."

No admission is charged, and all who are interested in local history and civic welfare are cordially invited.
